Have You Heard About the All-Star Crane and Fabian Project?

In case you haven't, they are a hot new jazz fusion band with Frank Gambale, Eric Marienthal, Alex Acuna, Mitch Forman and Mike Miller, co-founded by Lance Crane and Christian Fabian. We are sure that you, like everyone who has heard this Band, will be as excited and inspired by this music as some of the folks quoted here:

"Fantastic band!!!"... "The most dynamic jazz we've heard in a long time"...

"When are you guys coming back??!! Really great concert. Everybody LOVED it!"

The Project features Eric Marienthal, who toured with Al Hurt and played in Chick Corea's famous Elektric Band on saxophone; Mitch Forman, who played with Gerry Mulligan, Stan Getz, Wayne Shorter, Pat Metheny, Freddie Hubbard, Bill Evans and Rickie Lee Jones; Mike Miller, of Bette Midler's All-Star Band, who worked with Chick Corea, Yellowjackets, and many others; Alex Acuna of Weather Report, who has played with Elvis Presley, Diana Ross, Paul McCartney, Joni Mitchell, Ella Fitzgerald, Chick Corea, Whitney Houston, Herbie Hancock, Antonio Carlos Jobim, Beck, Roberta Flack, Al Jarreau and many others. Co-founders Lance Crane and Christian Fabian brought the Project together. "It was amazing to produce these fantastic musicians, we had a ball" says Lance Crane. "For sure—musical directing this Band is one of the highlights of my career" adds Christian Fabian.

Christian Fabian plays with Mike Longo's New York State of the Art Jazz in NYC, and co-leads the new Lionel Hampton Band featuring Jason Marsalis.

The Project members all have great stories and funny anecdotes about their stellar careers and lives as jazz musicians. To book an entertaining and informative interview please call Frank Vardaros at 818-813-5299 or email info@thejazzagency.com
